Foreword

Casey Cardinia Libraries (CCL) are delighted to share our 2019 – 23 Library Plan with you. It is the primary planning document for the delivery of library services in the Casey Cardinia region and fulfils part of our obligations set out in Section 125 of the Local Government Act.

This Plan represents an extension of the ambitious new direction set for CCL in 2017. We are reinvigorating our services to meet the changing needs and expectations of our community.

We will update this Plan on an annual basis for the next three years, before a major renewal in 2021.

CCL is one of Victoria's largest public library services. We are funded principally by the City of Casey, Cardinia Shire Council and the Victorian State Government. We support a rapidly growing and diverse community of more than 420,000 people. The population of City of Casey and Cardinia Shire council is forecast to exceed 700,000 people within twenty years.

Our libraries are located at Bunjil Place, Cranbourne, Doveton, Emerald, Endeavour Hills, Hampton Park, and Pakenham. The Cardinia Mobile Library provides a weekly service to Beaconsfield, Bunyip, Cockatoo, Garfield, Gembrook, Koo Wee Rup, Lang Lang, Maryknoll, Nar Nar Goon, Tynong and Upper Beaconsfield. We also have a dedicated CCL reading lounge and free Wi-Fi at the Federation University Library in Berwick.

CCL plays a leading role in the Swift Consortium who share library resources across 20 library services throughout Victoria. This gives our customers access to a collection of more than two million items.

The successful opening of Bunjil Place in 2017 has demonstrated the intrinsic value of libraries in engaging community in the arts. We are front door for the creative sector – when people visit their local library they are seeking out new experiences and opportunities to use their imagination.

Public libraries provide vital social infrastructure for community. We have the capacity to physically co-locate with a broad range of other services including galleries, educational institutions such as universities, shared work spaces, youth centres, kindergartens and adult community education services.

We are proud of the fact that our libraries are safe and welcoming. People will increasingly seek connection with others when they visit their library.

Vibrant public libraries promote literacy, provide free access to information, encourage a culture of lifelong learning and actively contribute to healthy and resilient communities. Our libraries host enormous reservoirs of potential in the people who visit.

The way our community uses our libraries is changing. We need to think carefully about the way we use space within the branches and adopt new technology. We will continue to prioritise the creation of welcoming spaces where people can gather and learn. We will also actively seek out opportunities to co-locate with other community services to deliver the best possible outcomes for our community.

We love books, and we want people to read them. We also place a high value on making quality information easily accessible to people. Our free programs and events inspire creativity and bring people together. One of CCL's most popular services is free 24/7 Wi-Fi.

We work hard to drive growth in our membership, visits and loans. We are seeing our members adopting new ways of consuming information. The uptake of digital items such as eAudiobooks and eBooks is increasing, while lending of physical items remains stable.

Library programs and activities are increasingly being delivered through partnerships with community organisations, educational institutions and recreation service providers. We continue to strengthen our relationships with the City of Casey, Cardinia Shire council and key stakeholders to deliver better outcomes for the community.

New libraries are needed as residential areas are developed across the region. Existing libraries also need to be refurbished to meet the changing needs of their community. A whole new cohort of people are using our libraries in less traditional ways. This means we must create spaces where people can connect and have conversations as well as quiet places for study and reflection.

As we advocate for new libraries in the region we also need to continually refine our programming and opening hours and ensure that our libraries meet the diverse needs of our whole community.

We will continue to actively listen to our community and encourage participation in library life.

Public Libraries Now and into the Future

Libraries are the 21st century knowledge wells. We provide a safe gathering place where people can explore and satisfy their thirst for knowledge. Public libraries help everyone: people studying, seeking information and needing help to access the internet; people simply wanting to browse, children coming for storytime, those finding their way in a new town seeking services or directions; people operating their small business, people wanting to connect with others in a creative environment; and sometimes those simply seeking shelter.

The International Federation of Library Associations (IFLA) released its Global Vision Report in March 2018. It was developed with input from 31,000 participants from 190 countries. The report highlights show libraries are:

- Dedicated to providing equal and free access to information and knowledge
- Deeply committed to core roles in supporting literacy, learning and reading
- Focused on our communities
- Embracing digital innovation
- Strong advocates for libraries at national and regional leader level
- Aware that funding is our biggest challenge
- Eager to work more collaboratively and develop strong partnerships
- Desiring to be less bureaucratic and resistant to change
- Proud to be guardians of the memory of the world
- Attracting young professionals deeply committed and eager to lead

Successful contemporary libraries offer open, accessible and welcoming public spaces where people can read, learn and connect with others.

Libraries have a growing responsibility to encourage social inclusion and help build resilient communities.

Public libraries will be judged more on the experiences they provide rather than the physical products on offer.

Public libraries locally and nationally are likely to encounter significant changes in demography. Significant trends in Casey Cardinia region include increased population, internal-migration, arrival of new migrant groups, more young families and an ageing population with increased life expectancy.

Rapidly changing technology will significantly influence the future development of libraries. We have an important role providing up-to-date information technology and encouraging people to use it effectively.

To ask why we need libraries at all, when there is so much information available elsewhere, is about as sensible as asking if roadmaps are necessary now that there are so very many roads.

– Jon Bing

The knowledge that was held almost exclusively in books is now available online. People have unparalleled access to information. Most people no longer need to physically visit the library to do research, get access to information or enjoy a leisurely read.

Library staff will increasingly engage and interact with the community in the library, online and outside our four walls. They will act more as way finders than curators. Their performance will be increasingly measured by the quality of the visitor experience in our libraries

The informal learning opportunities we provide our community will continue to rise in importance. This will include literacy, creative and digital learning for all ages.

Challenges and Opportunities

Budgets and Funding – The ongoing support and commitment of the City of Casey, Cardinia Shire Council and the Victorian State Government are critical to our success. We also need to seek new partnerships with business and community that generate new revenue and create efficiencies. Our people should understand and own our financial performance.

Change – We understand the need for innovation. Our appetite for risk is increasing. There is a willingness to have a go, make mistakes and learn from them. If we celebrate our strengths, empower our people to have a go and share success, we will be a great public library.

Communication – As we embrace change, we have the opportunity to improve the way we communicate with each other and our community. Active listening, engaging in conversations and leveraging technology are key opportunities.

Growth/Demographics – The Casey Cardinia region is growing and diversifying swiftly. The pressure on our services through increased patronage means we need to be looking for new ways to deliver key services to our community. This will require a deeper understanding of our community needs and a willingness to engage with partners in different ways.

Staffing – The jobs of the future are cognitive and non-routine. We need to consider how we get the best value from our people. We have great people working at CCL doing good work. We have an opportunity to empower staff to make decisions with a robust vision and clear set of values.

Technology – There is unprecedented change in the way humans gather and absorb information. Public libraries can be at the vanguard of that change if we choose to be early adopters. We have a responsibility to make sure that everyone can access information freely.

We have an opportunity to improve the way we operate. We can achieve significant efficiencies by updating and integrating our systems and automating routine tasks.

I lived in the Doveton region, as a young girl, and came across the library whilst my mum would do her shopping across the road. My family were not big on reading although for me when I was allowed to visit, these were times in my life when my mind became a place of excitement, curiosity and expansion. Then, I left to live in Olinda, and returned to Doveton and joined the library again, and my childhood excitement re-opened, and once again found the love of reading all over again.

Our Vision

Inspiring spaces where everyone is free to discover possibilities.

Our Mission

To encourage lifelong learning, increase literacy and build strong, resilient communities across the Casey Cardinia region.

Our Values

Teamwork

We excel when we all contribute. We are loyal and dedicated to each other. We always do our fair share.

Love of Learning

We love new things. We believe there is an opportunity to learn anywhere and everywhere.

Fairness

We treat all people fairly. We do not let our personal feelings bias our decisions about others. We give everyone a chance.

Creativity

Thinking of new ways to do things is crucial to our success. We are never content doing things the conventional way if we believe a better way is available.

Social Intelligence

We are aware of the motives and feelings of other people. We know what to do to fit into different situations and we know what to do to put others at ease.

Humour

We like to laugh, bringing smiles to other people. We try to see the light side of all situations.

Our Approach

- Great customer service
- Embrace new thinking
- Quick little steps
- Momentum not perfection
- Encourage people to take calculated risks
- Fail early, fail often
- A culture of collaboration and innovation
- Pay it forward
- Look after the neighbours
- Build confidence and resilience
- Share our story

Our Community – A Snapshot

In 1996, the region had a population of 188,488. The latest Australian Bureau of Statistics report shows the population has increased to 429,245 with significant residential development across the region's 1,690 square kilometres. (Regional Population Growth, Australia – 3218.0 Australian Bureau of Statistics, Revised August 2018). Cranbourne East and Beaconsfield-Officer are the areas that have experienced significant growth; both are in the top 10 largest and fastest growth areas in Victoria.

Casey Cardinia lies in the traditional lands of the Wurundjeri and Boon Wurrung peoples. Indigenous people from many different places live in the region.

Casey Cardinia region has more couples-with-children households (43%) and single-parent households (11.8%) than the Melbourne average. Nearly 55% of residents are families with children.

Our community is diverse. More than a quarter of residents were born in non-English speaking countries. Almost a third of the Casey Cardinia region's population speak a language other than English at home. Key languages other than English include Persian/Dari, Sinhalese, Punjabi, Mandarin, Hindi Arabic and Spanish. More than 9,800 people with an Afghan ancestry live in Casey; this is nearly half of all Afghan-born people in Victoria.

Both Casey and Cardinia are declared Refugee Welcome Zones, pledging 'commitment in spirit to welcoming refugees into the community, upholding the human rights of refugees, demonstrating compassion for refugees and enhancing cultural and religious diversity in the community.' (Refugee Council of Australia, Refugee Welcome Zones, November 2015).

Employment

Over 93% of our residents are employed, over half (59%) are full-time

More residents (15 years+) in our community hold vocational or no qualifications

30% of households speak a language other than English in the home.

Diversity

5% of the Victorian Indigenous population live in our community.

Compared with other OECD countries, Australian Institute of Health and Welfare (AIHW) reports that Australians are struggling to achieve a work-life balance ranking in the bottom third of the OECD countries. (Australia's Welfare 2017, AIHW, October 2017). Despite satisfactory job performance and earnings, Australians spent less time on leisure and personal care than those in other OECD countries. (How's life in Australia? OECD, November 2017).

General Social Survey data shows that in 2014, 45% of women and 36% of men were always or often rushed or pressed for time, compared with 21% of women and 28% of men who were rarely or never rushed or pressed for time. (General Social Survey Summary Results - 4159.0, Australian Bureau Statistics, 2014).

Family violence occurs across all social and economic classes, religions, location and cultural backgrounds. Casey Cardinia region has some of the highest recorded number of family violence incidents in Victoria (Crime Statistics Agency, Family incidents, 2012-2016).

Listening and Learning

CCL recognize how important it is to engage and listen to our community, our stakeholders and our staff. We have employed a number of methods to gather insights that inform this plan.

As part of the library planning process CCL undertook extensive consultation through a variety of methods.

We appreciate the time and thought invested by library users and community members who shared their ideas, suggestions and feedback.

This plan is informed by:

- A biannual Online Community Survey
- In depth interviews with community groups and individuals
- CCL Annual All Staff Planning Workshop(s)
- Annual internal Organisational Health Check
- CCL Board members
- Key staff at City of Casey and Cardinia Shire Council
- Conversations across the organisation

Key findings from our recent community survey included:

- People generally feel welcome, happy and relaxed when they enter our libraries.
- New libraries and upgrades provoke a strong range of responses – most people like the changes.
- Community requested programs including those on trend, adult education, kids programs including targeted learning to support school, new book events, more STEAM programs for kids, book clubs and author events.
- Our library users like to see the variety of offerings across the branches for all ages young and old and all abilities.
- Books are really important, and a lot of people come to the library to read and learn at their own pace.
- The library is used for many activities, quiet reading and studying and working, a place to relax and unwind from their busy lives, attending our programs and events or to make use of our facilities.
- The range of purposes, comments and use indicates tension and challenges around noise levels and space. There is an identified need for quiet spaces with suggestions including quiet times.
- Community members commented about the differences between branches, in terms of the look and feel.
- Ongoing community feedback indicates that CCL needs to continue to make our libraries more accessible physically and digitally, the community appreciate our extended opening hours, particularly the 9am weekday opening.
- Our library users want light, friendly, inviting and comfortable furniture, attractive spaces.
- There was strong consistent feedback on our friendly and approachable staff. People feel they can ask for help without any judgement and value the opportunity to engage with library staff.
- Our overall Net Promoter Score (NPS) indicates that those who use our libraries love us and what we do, they are incredibly supportive of the service we provide to the community and would recommend us to family and friends.
- There are many users who love what we do and offer; they may not utilise the services or facilities themselves but are thrilled our community have access to these.
- We still have work to do educating library users around full range of our services we offer.
