GREETINGS

Welcome to our very first online events program.

They say necessity is the mother of invention.

We are intensely grateful for the way the community has supported us as we find new ways of delivering library services.

This program is a fine example of how we can all adjust and do things differently in challenging times. We hope you feel inspired and engaged by the events and activities on offer.

For more information on the broad range of services on offer through CCL, please visit our website ccl.vic.gov.au and discover the endless possibilities available at your local library.

These uncertain times have brought out the very best in the CCL community and I hope that as we gradually reopen our services, we get to see you in our branches feeling safe and secure.

Kind Regards
Chris Buckingham
Chief Executive Officer
Casey Cardinia Libraries
