What On in Spring at Casey Cardinia Libraries More than 50 online events!

Spring has sprung and although the doors are temporarily closed at Casey Cardinia Libraries (CCL) the library is coming to you.

To keep you engaged and entertained two special What's On in Spring Guides have been launched, one for the adults and one for the kids (including a School Holiday Program).

There are more than 50 free online events on offer, all hosted online via Zoom, Facebook or YouTube.

Casey Cardinia Libraries CEO, Chris Buckingham said: 'It is Spring – a time of renewal and growth. By reading, learning and actively participating in community, we are making a conscious decision to face down the challenges and determine our own future. Spring is a time to try something new, take a risk (or two) and set a different agenda.'

For the adults there is Job search support; Help for parents teaching kids at home; Conversation clubs, Pilates, U3A events, Chats with authors, Armchair travel, Support for parents, Local history, Family law guidance, Bee keeping, and a Trivia night just to get started.

For the kids there is Stop motion, Pirate day, LOTE events, Dinovember Events, Bees, Cooking classes, NAIDOC events, Sinhalese Storytime and craft, Writing and drawing workshops, Halloween events, Competitions and MORE!

Chris said: 'CCL are here to help you discover the possibilities and in turn open the door for a new approach. We cannot wait to see you again in one of our libraries, but until then we are determined to walk with you through these troubled times. We will get to a better place together.'

Whilst the library is temporarily closed keep your finger on the pulse by regularly going to their website (<https://www.cclc.vic.gov.au/>) and follow Casey Cardinia Libraries on Facebook and Instagram.

Be quick, some events are limited so book your spot now!
