

The Dog Runner by Bren Macdibble

This suspenseful story follows the adventures of Ella, her brother Emery and their five dogs as they escape out of starving city and across a dangerous landscape filled with people who would do anything, even kill, for food. When Emery gets hurt we follow Ella as she tries to get them all to safety at Emery's mum's place in the country. This was a very exciting and sometimes scary read as I could feel Ella's hunger and fear and happiness as she went through and overcame each challenge along the way. A great read!
