

Cooee Mittigar: A Story on Darug Songlines* by Jasmine Seymour & Leanne Mulgo Watson

This stunningly beautiful and moving picture book takes readers on an immersive journey through Darug Country, exploring the seasons and life in the region. Through the language, songlines, dreaming and connections with the land that the Darug have had for tens of thousands of years in the Sydney area, readers are invited to join as friend with Black Swan, to walk and to learn about and care for Country.
