

Using our Web Print service

1. Save or download your file to your device
2. Using a web browser, visit computers.connectedlibraries.org.au/webprint
3. Log in using your library card number and password
4. Choose the “select file” option and upload your files
5. Once processing has completed, you can go to any of our photocopiers, login and release your print job*

*Print credit required, available from Customer Service desk